2. Enlistment Bonus

a. Purpose. The enlistment bonus is a monetary incentive paid to individuals enlisting in a Military Service for duty in a specific military specialty experiencing critical personnel shortages.

b. Eligibility

(1) Except as in subparagraph D.2.b.(2), below, an individual who enlists in the active component of a Military Service for a period of at least 4 years in a military specialty that is designated as "critical," or who extends his or her initial enlistment period of active duty in that Armed Force to a total of at least 4 years in a military specialty designated as "critical," may receive a bonus in an amount prescribed by the Secretary of the Military Department. The individual concerned shall serve in the designated military specialty, or in a comparable military specialty approved by the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Force Management Policy (ASD(FMP)) for the full period of the enlistment.

(2) Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Army, as authorized by Section 308f of 37 U.S.C. (reference (a)), an individual who is a high school graduate (or has received a high school education equivalency certificate); whose score on the Armed Forces Qualification Test is at or above the fiftieth percentile; and who enlists in the Army for a period of at least 3 years in a military specialty designated as "critical" may be paid a bonus in an amount prescribed by the Secretary of the Army not to exceed $4,000.

c. Amount and Method of Payment. The maximum amount of enlistment bonus an eligible member may receive shall not exceed $12,000. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned shall establish the amount paid for the member's military specialty and the method of payment, in accordance with DoD Instruction 1304.22 (reference (c)). The first installment may not exceed $7,000, and the remainder shall be paid in equal periodic installments no less frequently than once every 3 months.

d. Recoupment. A member who voluntarily or because of his or her misconduct does not complete the term of enlistment for which a bonus was paid under Section 308a of reference (a), or a member who is not qualified technically in the military specialty for which a bonus was paid under Section 308a of reference (a) after June 30, 1977 (other than a member who is not qualified because of injury, illness, or other impairment not the result of his or her misconduct), shall refund that percentage of the bonus that represents the unexpired part of the total enlistment period for which the bonus was paid.

3. Selective Reenlistment Bonus

a. Purpose. The selective reenlistment bonus is a retention incentive paid to enlisted members serving in certain selected military specialties who reenlist for additional obligated service. The bonus is intended to encourage the reenlistment of sufficient numbers of qualified enlisted personnel in critical military specialties with high training costs or demonstrated retention shortfalls in the Military Services.
